

Sodomy and Taxes in Virginia

Sodomy and taxes don't go together like cornbread and molasses. Yet, they're the sticky mess we have to consider in the Commonwealth. Yuck. If the fundamental issues weren't so important, it would be laughable that we even have to address these questions. As George Orwell said, "We have now sunk to a depth at which the restatement of the obvious is the first duty of intelligent men." So, let's state the obvious.

Every society that ever existed - from tiny tribe to great civilization - regulated sexual behavior into the categories of honored, tolerated, and punished. Since 1607, Virginia had the Judeo-Christian moral-ethical values for what is right and wrong.

The rules were the 'rational' application for what is written the King James Bible. Consequently, adultery, incest, homosexuality, and bestiality were wrong. Clearly, today's majority of Virginians favor moving consensual, adult homosexual behavior from the punished to the tolerated category. No one advocates, nor do any authorities use, the power of the state as sex police to invade the privacy of the bedroom. The police do make arrests - as in NoVa - when homosexuals use a public park to solicit and engage in sex acts. Do the liberals push public sodomy for homosexuals? Which is precisely the problem - what is punished when you throw away the Judeo-Christian standard we have always had?

When you destroy the moral-ethical standard, then you have no moral standing for the laws that make bigamy, polygamy/polyandry, incest, bestiality, obscenity, and sodomy illegal. Which means same-sex marriage is okay and a Muslim can have four wives and the Mormon out in Utah suing the government can have his fourteen 'wives'.

You destroy a pillar of American civilization with homosexual marriage. No civilization ever - including the ones in decline with rampant homosexuality - had marriage as anything other than between man and woman. Because marriage is not about perks from the government, but it's about creating families.

Real families. The best family has a mother and a father. Everything less - single parent families, grandparent families, foster families which are legal - can be wonderful families to provide for children, but they are always a bit less than the best possible. Homosexual/lesbian partners may have love for children, but they lack either a mother or a father. No sexual pervert pretending to be another gender can compensate. Only sissy Christians and barbarian Pagans, who reject the moral authority of the Bible, our tradition and the commonsense of history, think homosexuals/lesbians should marry and acquire children (because they can't create them naturally).

Everything bad that has happened to families in the past forty years has been a social pathology to America. The consequences of divorce, drugs, alcohol abuse, sexual abuse, child abuse, abortion, illegitimacy, pornography, suicide are suffering, pain and death. The family is an institution that is older than America. Deconstructing the family and making it some kind of village for the village people will destroy our civilization.

I wrote an op ed about bugging American Civilization (see archives at www.gopusa.com, www.bushcountry.org, www.americandaily.com). I pointed out that it won't happen the day after Adam and Steve are married in America. But, it will happen. I got angry emails and one was particularly instructive on why our Civilization is in jeopardy. A U Va-educated lawyer and professing sissy Christian wrote that if I said that adultery, incest, homosexuality and bestiality are all moral wrongs, sins, as it is written in the Holy Bible, then I was guilty of 'hate speech' and my speech should be suppressed.

Wake up Christians and Jews. If you read what the Bible says about homosexuality in public you will be taken to court in Canada and fined. It's already happened. The suppression of free speech is coming here – its part and parcel of liberal intolerance. The Puritans of liberal double think and the Pharisees of sissy Christians, will move step by inevitable step to become totalitarians. Your freedom of speech and religion are threatened – now.

Conservatives are happy to contend in the marketplace of ideas. Liberals, make your silly arguments for exalting anal sex between men and finding fault with other perversions. Conservatives will talk about loving the sinner (our friends and relatives), rejecting the sin and protecting the family and children with the rule of law.

Now, a short word on taxes. Until we see the numbers for tax 'reform', its just a political ploy. Recently, Sen. Marty Williams (1 SD) mentioned a constitutional amendment to make the General Assembly spend transportation trust money on transportation and then a 5 cent a gallon new gas tax to pay for more transportation projects.

The fundamental issue is this: If a Republican majority in the General Assembly can't do their job and spend transportation trust money on transportation, then why are they there? Republicans should understand that increasing taxes is a no go, until you properly account to the people for how you spend the taxes you already have. Is VDOT spending wisely on I-64?

Finally, stating the obvious again – you are the sovereigns of the state. If you do not use your power at the polls and in public forums, you will lose your freedom, your rights, and your heritage.
